Date : Mar 13, 2018

The resort provides its guests with a refreshing getaway from modern life, complete with holistic spa therapies, fusion cuisine, and fully-furnished private pool villas.

[PHUKET, 03/13/2018] - Award-winning luxury resort Keemala offers an unforgettable forest getaway experience. A member of the Small Luxury Hotels of the World group, Keemala provides a set of luxury pool villas in Phuket, all based on different tropical elements and Thai folklore, and stocked with holistic, natural amenities. The resort overlooks the nearby Kamala Village and the Andaman Sea, tucked within the lush woodlands and forests of Phuket Island.

Four Concepts, One Purpose

Keemala offers four different types of private pool villas – Tree Pool Houses, Clay Pool Cottages, Bird’s Nest and Tent Pool Villas. Each villa is modelled around the “Four Fictitious Clans” of Phuket – the We-ha (Sky), Pa-Ta-Pea (Earth), Rung-Nok (Nest) and Khon-Jorn (Wanderer) clans, respectively. The architecture of each villa reflects the folklore and traditions associated with the natural element it represents.

Each villa is available as either one or two-bedroom, single-storey, and duplex style villas. All are equipped with king-size beds, plush bathroom amenities, tea and coffee, along with private pools and outdoor villas that offer a fantastic view of the rainforest.

A Natural Experience

Keemala believes in health and wellness and offers natural, holistic solutions to help rejuvenate the senses. The Mala Spa specialises in traditional healing and medicine, using only the best modern pampering and beautifying regimens. Medicinal herbs and plants are used, along with energy healing techniques and slimming massages. Each massage takes place in eight different treatment rooms designed for a spacious, multi-sensory experience.

Along with natural remedies, Keemala offers a sumptuous, “Feast For The Senses” dining experience. Visitors have two options – the Mala Restaurant for all-day dining, and the “Cha-La” for poolside refreshments. For vegetarians and pescetarians, the resort also offers a Healthy Living Cuisine package that incorporates various superfoods and can be prepared according to dietary preferences.
