FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Houston, Texas (April 23, 2015) - Igxe.com is making Runescape 2007 or Old School Runescape game lovers happy with its safe and fast solution. The company is offering RS 2007 gold safe at the lowest possible prices. RS 2007 gold is the currency or bill used in the Runescape 2007 or Old School Runescape games.

RS 2007 gold is an important factor in the game. In this game, players need to farm RS 2007 gold and so accumulate different weapons and tools which allow them to cross to the next level. However, it is very complicated for new players to farm RS 2007 gold initially so they often purchase it from an online store. Experienced players also prefer to buy this needed game currency rather than wasting their time and energy on farming gold. Igxe.com is making it a lot easier for players to buy this currency, at the best prices, online.

In Runescape 2007, each dungeon can manage 30 to 100 players one time. These players form a team when entering a dungeon to beat the monsters. After collecting needed tools and weapons, players return to their respective regions to evaluate their newly gained weapons. The game has a number of dungeons for the players to discover. The Relic of Castel Chikoru is one such dungeon. Chikoruis named for a dog in an ancient tale where a number of workers were appointed to craft the castle. One day, one of the workers team got a dog from somewhere. The dog entertained these workers throughout the day and so they named the castle Chikoru.

When contacted, Monica Cruise, one of the players of RS 2007 and a regular IGXE customer said, "This is the best online store to buy RS 2007 gold at cheap prices and in a safe manner. I am happy with the service which is why I am now a regular client."
